

EDILIANS GROUP FINALIZES THE ACQUISITION OF INDUSTRIE COTTO POSSAGNO AND STRENGTHENS ITS PRESENCE IN SOUTHERN EUROPE

Dardilly, Friday, April 3, 2026

Edilians Group announces that on Thursday, April 2, it finalized the acquisition of Industrie Cotto Possagno, a leading Italian manufacturer of clay roof tiles. This strategic transaction strengthens the Group's presence in Southern Europe, a key pillar of its international development strategy.

With a strong local footprint, Industrie Cotto Possagno will continue to operate through all of its brands, leveraging its teams, industrial facilities and recognized expertise. Industrie Cotto Possagno will thus continue to pursue its mission: delivering high-quality products and services to all its customers, in line with its longstanding commitments.

An integration day, bringing together the teams of Edilians Group and those of its new Italian subsidiary, will aim to encourage the sharing of best practices and lay the foundations for long-term, sustainable collaboration.

"We are very pleased to welcome Industrie Cotto Possagno to Edilians Group. The company's strong local roots and the expertise of the Italian team will be fully valued and leveraged. Our integration plan will focus in particular on health and safety and decarbonization, two key pillars of Edilians Group's culture," said Pascal Casanova, President of Edilians Group.

"Joining Edilians Group opens a new chapter for Industrie Cotto Possagno. We share the same industrial culture, built on quality, respect for local know-how and a strong commitment to sustainability. This integration will enable us to strengthen our development while preserving the identity of our brands and the expertise of our teams. The initial discussions with the Edilians Group have been very positive and point to significant synergies," said Alessandro Vardanega, Finance and Administrative Director of Industrie Cotto Possagno.

With this acquisition, Edilians Group reaffirms its ambition to build a leading European industrial group, combining industrial excellence, strong local presence and a firm commitment to sustainable development.
